

Final Sample: Corpus Selected for the Systematic Literature Review
Database on the combination between transit and light individual mobility 238

Legend

- Reading of metadata (title, keywords, and abstract)
- Full reading of the document's content

Sample: 14,109 references

Reading Guide

The systematic literature review examining the links between public transportation networks and light individual mobility is based on a corpus of 238 scientific publications in English and French. The bibliographic search process included searches in various search engines (S_{EN} et S_{FR}), in the most influential journals (S_{JR}), as well as in the bibliographies of the selected articles (S_{CC}).